30 hours of Government-Funded Childcare for Working Parents

All 3 and 4-year-olds living in England are entitled to 15 hours of funded childcare per week, at Wolviston nursery the 15 hours are 5 mornings a week. In addition, working parents or carers of children aged three to four may be eligible to an extra 15 hours of childcare per week.

Please note we cannot guarantee being able to meet all your requirements.

I am interested in 30-hour nursery place

The term your child turns 4 years old they will be given the opportunity of extending their attendance up to 30 hours and spaces are limited.

The 30 hours of free childcare can be divided between multiple providers to best suit your child's needs. For example, children may attend our Nursery every morning and spend the remaining hours with a childminder. For information about childcare in the area, contact the Families Information Service 01642 527225 or visit Stockton Information Directory.
